

PETITION FOR GRAND JURY

Lafayette Citizens Determined on Having the Rioters Punished.

Ex-Priest Rudolph Found to Have Been Shot—Fort Wayne Democratic Soldiers Protest Against the G. A. R. Appropriation.

A MYSTERIOUS RIOT.

Hard to Explain Why More People Were Not Hurt at Lafayette.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 27.—Last night's riot in the opera-house during the lecture of ex-Priest George Rudolph on Romanism has been the sole topic of conversation on the streets here to-day. Some hours after the disgraced cleric had been removed to a doctor was called, and the rioters were taken to the hospital. How it came about that more people were not injured, when fifteen or twenty shots were fired, is hard to explain, unless blank cartridges were used. A committee has already been at work collecting evidence on the ring-leaders of the mob, and the names of the men who forced their way to the stage and assaulted the lecturer are in hand. This morning Prosecutor Wm. Wood filed a petition in the Circuit Court asking Judge Langdon to recall the grand jury to investigate the shooting. The details of last night's riot are set out in the petition, and it is probable the grand jury will be brought together again.

TWO CASES FOR THE CORONER.

Mysterious Poisoning of a Boy—Man Found with His Throat Cut.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Jan. 27.—Early this morning Coroner Falk received the following letter from Dr. George E. Clark, of Waynesburg:

I write to you for advice about the son of Jesse Mobley, living one mile south of Harrisville, Ind. The boy, aged fourteen, is slowly dying from the effects of arsenical poisoning. This is the opinion of Dr. Clark, who was called to the house on Jan. 26. The boy was found lying on the ground, and I saw the case on the way to the house. The boy was found lying on the ground, and I saw the case on the way to the house. The boy was found lying on the ground, and I saw the case on the way to the house.

The coroner hastened to the scene, but found the boy dead. He was found lying on the ground, and I saw the case on the way to the house. The boy was found lying on the ground, and I saw the case on the way to the house. The boy was found lying on the ground, and I saw the case on the way to the house.

Serious Trouble in the Congregation.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LEBANON, Ind., Jan. 27.—A division in the United Brethren Church membership here is imminent. A few weeks ago their pastor, Rev. W. H. Miller, claiming permission from two of the three trustees, had the tablet, bearing the inscription, "United Brethren Church, Erected in 1888, Rev. S. Stackhouse, Pastor," removed and substituted, "A while before this Rev. Stackhouse and Miller had waged war in controversy, and the removal of the tablet awakened the members to express their views. An indictment for the grand jury against Rev. Miller for malicious trespass followed, but was quashed because of a clerical error. That of leaving the figure '2' from the year 1888. The State's attorney has just appealed the case to the Supreme Court, claiming it has decided that no date at all is necessary in such a case in the memorial of the tablet. The members each have their turn in the weekly papers to keep up the quarrel, which now looks like the courts will have to finally settle the issue, and it is generally believed it will wind up with a split in the fold.

Watkins Again Indicted.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., Jan. 27.—M. S. Watkins, of the late firm of Watkins Brothers, extensive dealers in grain, with half a dozen elevators in this part of the State, recently acquitted of the charge of grand larceny, was indicted yesterday for embezzlement by the grand jury, called in special session. Five bills were returned based on the charge of farmers who claimed to have in the aggregate three thousand bushels of wheat stored in his warehouses at the time of the firm's failure. The case has been sold prior to the trial and the proceeds appropriated. Watkins was rearrested to-day and gave $5,000 bond.

New Town Named Quick City.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 27.—Frankton, a village on the Panhandle railroad, eight miles north of this city, is preparing to rank along with Elwood and Alexandria in the matter of enterprise. A town meeting held last night was decided by an almost unanimous majority to change the name to Quick City. The Board of Trade has closed a deal whereby W. H. Cross, of Pennsylvania, who is associated with others, locates a forty-not glass factory that will employ 250 hands.

A Bold Attempt at Robbery.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DUBLIN, Ind., Jan. 27.—Mr. Linley Miles, living northeast of town, was called to the door of his sitting-room about 8 o'clock, a few evenings ago, and on opening it, a stranger thrust a revolver in his face, demanding his life or his money. Mr. Miles, being lame, always carries a cane, and on the spur of the moment, he raised his cane in self-defense, and in doing so struck the man's pistol or hand in such a way as to direct it from its intended aim. He pushed the door shut in the face of the villain, and at once called for his dog, who is a savage one. On hearing the dog being called for, the would-be assassin made his retreat.

Democratic Soldiers Protest.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 27.—At a meeting of the Democratic Soldiers' Club last evening, at the Circuit Court room, the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved by the Allen County Democratic Soldiers' Club, That we are opposed to the bill now before the Indiana Legislature appropriating $50,000 for the entertainment of the annual encampment of the G. A. R., for the reason that we consider any appropriation would be unconstitutional, and we request our senators and representatives to use their influence and vote against it. Resolved, That we are in favor of the bill now before the Legislature establishing a State soldiers' home, and we ask that due appropriation be made for that purpose.

Shaft-Holder Company Sues.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 27.—The American Shaft-Holder Company, of Wabash, to-day filed suit against W. P. Jones and Elmer E. Stephenson for an injunction to restrain the defendants from making and selling a buggy anti-rattler and for heavy damages for infringement of patents owned by the plaintiff. The action began in the federal court has long been contemplated, the plaintiffs, for months, having been gathering evidence.

An Apparition Before the Engine.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 27.—The engineer and fireman of the west-bound local freight train on the Wabash railroad were badly frightened early this morning by a strange apparition which appeared to be an apparition on the track ahead of them. The whistle was sounded and the strange figure got out of the way in time to avoid being struck. It proved to be a man clad only in underclothes and socks, who was a mass of ice. It is believed he is an escaped lunatic.

Bishop Dwenger's Will.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 27.—The will of the late Bishop Dwenger was probated to-day. Bishop R. Aemacher, of Nashville, and Rev. Joseph Brommer, vicar-general of this diocese, are named as executors. The personal property amounted to less than $500. The good man gave away nearly everything in charity beyond a few bequests to his relatives. The real estate of which he was possessed was also directed to be held in trust by the executors for the benefit of the church.

District Convention of the Y. P. S. C. E.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., Jan. 27.—The district convention of the Christian Endeavor Society convened here to-day. The counties represented are Montgomery, Parke, Putnam and Vermillion. Some of those present are U. C. Stover, of Ladoga; Miss Elizabeth Wishard, of Indianapolis; Dr. R. J. Cunningham, of Indianapolis; Miss Kate Metzger, of Rev. R. J. Hunter, of Terre Haute; Miss Nora Hammerly, of Greencastle; Rev. J. H. O. Smith, of Valparaiso.

Indiana Notes.

The Morgan County Farmers Institute began a two days' session at Martinsville yesterday.

D. L. Lally, a Madison shoe merchant, has assigned to S. J. Bear. Liabilities, $4,000; assets, $2,000.

Postmaster Crockett, of South Bend, has received Federal notice that this office has been placed under the civil service system. Edmund Luther, seventy-two years old, dropped dead in M. H. Lutz & Co.'s office at South Bend. He went in the office to read and suddenly fell over dead.

Some unknown person entered Henry Martin's stable, near Worthington, a few nights ago and cut his harness to pieces and shaved the tails of his horses.

The new iron wagon bridge across the Wabash river, at Montezuma, Indiana, is now $25,778, and the commissioners will be called by the auditor to accept the work Feb. 1.

W. H. Fark of Baker township, Morgan county, killed a bald eagle on his farm a few days ago that measured seven feet and three inches from tip to tip. It could span several ones with its wings. Some of our roads were built by donations of work and money, some by taxation of land adjoining, and toll-roads made by stock companies. Under the laws of 1882 to 1889 this county made 12 1/2 miles of gravel roads by taxation on adjoining lands with a levy amounting to $35,736.66, and as many miles more by the same method. The toll-roads have been growing against toll-roads. The law of 1889 furnished the means for relief, and if there was the same bridge survey of the roads in the several townships in their respective counties, with grade-surveys, maps, plans, specifications, and estimates of the work to be done, for a systematic work for the commissioners, trustees and supervisors.

Second—The law that provides for the county survey of the roads to be done by the free roads in his district of townships is very satisfactory, and the same feature should be extended to include all roads in his part of the county.

Third—The commissioner, trustee and surveyor should form a board to make the road lay in each township, for road and bridge purposes, under the supervision of the Commissioners' Court, subject to petition and the approval of the full board of commissioners.

Fourth—Some writers advocate, and some bills have been presented with this view, to abolish the office of supervisor. This I think would be a mistake. The following reasons: The voters of a road district would be better placed to have a say in the selection than for a trustee to appoint a stranger to the office of supervisor.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

JUSTICE LAMAR'S FUNERAL.

Remains of the Jurist Laid at Rest After Public Eulogies Had Been Pronounced.

MACON, Ga., Jan. 27.—The funeral ceremonies over the late L. Q. C. Lamar commenced this morning at 9:30, when a public meeting was held at the opera-house, and eulogies were delivered by some of the most prominent members of the bar in the State. The procession from the house to the Methodist Church commenced at 11:30. Dr. Cantler, president of Emory College, where the dead justice graduated, delivered the funeral sermon. Chief Justice Fuller and the associate justices were present. The thousands of people gathered in the streets to witness the funeral cortege and at the church it was impossible to get within fifty yards of the casket. The church bells were rung during the funeral services. The interment took place about 2:30 p. m., and afterward Chief Justice Fuller and the Washington party left for home.

General Doubleday Dead.

MENHAM, N. J., Jan. 27.—General Abner Doubleday died at his home here yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Death was due to Bright's disease.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

Prof. J. M. Schaeberle, of Lick University, has sailed for Chili, where, in the heart of the Andes, he will observe an eclipse of the sun on April 16.

The mixing-house of the Sterling dynamite works, at Meador, Ala., blew up yesterday, and George Williams and James Parsons were torn to shreds.

William J. Scroggins, a white boy, aged seventeen, was hanged at Birmingham, Ala., for the murder of a Jewish peddler known as Schestig. He claimed to have been paid to do the deed.

Dr. W. B. Binalde, of Denver, the husband of Lillie Mason, a variety actress, has brought suit at Spokane, for $100,000 against Big Bertha, the confidence queen, and Rudolph Gockawa, a wealthy brewer of Spokane, for alienating his wife's affections.

Losses by Fire.

DETROIT, Jan. 27.—The Detroit high school, a building old brick, in-trap, three stories in height, the annex of which was at one time the State Capitol building, was burned at an early hour this morning. Loss, $100,000.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Jan. 27.—Fire at 10 o'clock, to-night, destroyed the Tower Hotel, valued at $70,000, and it is possible two lives have been lost, as two or three people are missing.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—The six-story brick building at Nos. 62 to 66 Canal street was almost destroyed by fire at midnight. The losses will aggregate $75,000.

Lindsay Will Succeed Carlisle.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 27.—Judge William Lindsay, of this city, will succeed Mr. Carlisle as junior Senator from Kentucky. This afternoon Congressman McCrory and Stone withdrew from the contest, and will return to Washington.

Movement of Steamers.

HAMBURG, Jan. 27.—Arrived: Moravia, from New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Arrived: Britannic, from Liverpool and Queenstown.

In Their Most Artistic Pose.

Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Eminent Democrats are now having their photographs taken cabinet size.

"WHIZZING" in children is soon cured by the famous Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

KANSAS BANK ROBBER.

And a Citizen Shot to Death While Pursuing the Thieves—The Latter Captured.

WAVELEY, Kan., Jan. 27.—While cashier Duvall and assistant cashier Converse were counting the cash in the bank of Waverly this afternoon, two masked men entered and ordered them to throw up their hands. They did so, and the robbers proceeded to fill their pockets with money. A merchant entered while the robbers were at work, and the latter became frightened and ran, pursued by a number of citizens. One of the robbers fired his revolver at P. J. Incledon and killed him. The robbers escaped, but were run down by a posse and captured near Lebo. They proved to be William Vanorman and Frank Lewis, two local desperadoes. The amount of money stolen was something less than $2,500. Incledon leaves a wife and several children and was in rather poor circumstances.

GOOD ROADS.

Suggestions from a Practical Road-Builders—How Existing Laws Should Be Amended.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal:

From the papers and discussions in the roads and bridges and articles in the various newspapers, with the message of Governor Chase, we are led to the conclusion that Indiana is noted for bad roads, and has no good roads or good laws on the subject. This proposition is not consistent with the spirit of progress in our State, the status of our laws or the condition of our roads. The statistics of Indiana, with the records of the several counties, furnish abundant evidence that the people are in favor of good roads and good laws, and have made determined efforts to secure them. We have as good roads, if not better, than many of our sister States, and laws for making and keeping them in repair are equally as good. Any community, if they are united in welfare and prosperity, can have good roads under the present laws if they wish them, and are willing to pay for them. Henry county, with many other counties of the State, has good roads, and most every one of them is a good one. Some of our roads were built by donations of work and money, some by taxation of land adjoining, and toll-roads made by stock companies. Under the laws of 1882 to 1889 this county made 12 1/2 miles of gravel roads by taxation on adjoining lands with a levy amounting to $35,736.66, and as many miles more by the same method. The toll-roads have been growing against toll-roads. The law of 1889 furnished the means for relief, and if there was the same bridge survey of the roads in the several townships in their respective counties, with grade-surveys, maps, plans, specifications, and estimates of the work to be done, for a systematic work for the commissioners, trustees and supervisors.

Second—The law that provides for the county survey of the roads to be done by the free roads in his district of townships is very satisfactory, and the same feature should be extended to include all roads in his part of the county.

Third—The commissioner, trustee and surveyor should form a board to make the road lay in each township, for road and bridge purposes, under the supervision of the Commissioners' Court, subject to petition and the approval of the full board of commissioners.

Fourth—Some writers advocate, and some bills have been presented with this view, to abolish the office of supervisor. This I think would be a mistake. The following reasons: The voters of a road district would be better placed to have a say in the selection than for a trustee to appoint a stranger to the office of supervisor.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, is in the city.

Hub T. Smith, of Vincennes, an employee of the State Department, has been appointed consular clerk to succeed Carl A. Haasman. His first duties abroad will be to act as private secretary to Gen. J. W. Foster during his labors at the Behring sea conference. Mr. Smith will sail with Gen. Foster, with General and Mrs. John W. Foster.

General Notes.

KANSAS BANK ROBBER.

And a Citizen Shot to Death While Pursuing the Thieves—The Latter Captured.

WAVELEY, Kan., Jan. 27.—While cashier Duvall and assistant cashier Converse were counting the cash in the bank of Waverly this afternoon, two masked men entered and ordered them to throw up their hands. They did so, and the robbers proceeded to fill their pockets with money. A merchant entered while the robbers were at work, and the latter became frightened and ran, pursued by a number of citizens. One of the robbers fired his revolver at P. J. Incledon and killed him. The robbers escaped, but were run down by a posse and captured near Lebo. They proved to be William Vanorman and Frank Lewis, two local desperadoes. The amount of money stolen was something less than $2,500. Incledon leaves a wife and several children and was in rather poor circumstances.

Not so Expensive After All.

The inauguration of a President is not a very costly affair if General Harrison's is any criterion. Of course, the features of the celebration attendant on the inauguration—the decoration of the streets, the cost of the ball, etc.—are investments made by the principal owners of the Henry county turnpike (National road) and its secretary, with no small amount of experience in making repairs, and the recipient of advice in abundance on the subject of roads and their management, and feel somewhat advised in making and repairing good roads.

M. H. CHAPPELL.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Jan. 20.

Washington Post.

The inauguration of a President is not a very costly affair if General Harrison's is any criterion. Of course, the features of the celebration attendant on the inauguration—the decoration of the streets, the cost of the ball, etc.—are investments made by the principal owners of the Henry county turnpike (National road) and its secretary, with no small amount of experience in making repairs, and the recipient of advice in abundance on the subject of roads and their management, and feel somewhat advised in making and repairing good roads.

M. H. CHAPPELL.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Jan. 20.

British Sarcasm.

The Pall Mall Gazette declares that "Mr. C. A. Dana, who has just left here on his way to New York, to visit to Jerusalem, will be almost certainly offered the vacancy at the court of St. James." Mr. Dana has perpetrated some very delicate and invidious bits of sarcasm during his career as a leading American journalist, but this bewitching bit delivered so unconsciously by the delightfully misinformed British journalist, to rank almost with some of the Danaesque masterpieces. One can almost imagine the grim and saturnine smile of the benevolent editor of the Sun on reading the Gazette's announcement.

Raising the Wrong Limit.

Logansport Journal.

Senator Magee has introduced a bill in the State Senate increasing the limit for selling cigarettes to boys under fifteen from $1 to $10. As there never has been a prosecution under the $1 law it looks like the State is raising the wrong limit. Better make it read "boys under twenty-five" and enforce it.

Judge Baker on the Rights of Man.

Louisville Commercial.

Judge Baker, of the United States District Court at Indianapolis, laid down the law yesterday in a way to attract attention. Several thousand associates have no more rights in this country than plain every-day citizens. A free American citizen can belong to an "order" or not, as he pleases.

Consistency Not a Democratic Jewel.

New York Herald.

Inasmuch as the Indiana Senate refused to adjourn as a mark of respect to the memory of the late President Hayes, it should follow up its action by reading Mr. Cleveland out of the Democratic party for his audacity in going to attend General Hayes's funeral.

Same Old Spirit.

Boston Journal.

The Democrats in the Indiana Legislature who made the death of ex-President Hayes the occasion of fresh insults to his memory, are now turning down department organized than it was a few days ago Bill Holman, of Indiana, need lose no sleep.

Holman's Time Not Come.

Chicago Mail.

Cleveland now wants to turn down Bill Holman, of Indiana. Unless Grover has got his turning-down department better organized than it was a few days ago Bill Holman, of Indiana, need lose no sleep.

Lack of Courtesy.

Boston Transcript.

The present Congress failed to appoint a committee to attend the funeral of ex-President Hayes—an omission which indicates the caliber of a majority of both branches.

Think of Me Too Highly.

New York Commercial Advertiser.

We do not believe that St. Clair McKelway will relinquish an $8,000 salary and a position of distinction to become the clerk of a man like Cleveland.

A Whack from a Church Member.

Ram's Horn.

Of course you can find hypocrites in the church, but when you want one quick you can save time by looking outside of it.

Don't Trifle with the Teeth!

If our teeth were renewed as are our nails, they might not need constant care. But teeth don't renew themselves after childhood. They are made of bone, and bone is not renewed. They are made of bone, and bone is not renewed. They are made of bone, and bone is not renewed.

Old Whiskies.

For elegant old whiskies go to Casper Schmalholz, 29 South Meridian street, in stock: Mathews, 1851; McDermott, 1853, 1855, 1857; McKee, 1852, 1857; O'Connell, 1854; O'Connell & Lillard, 1855, 1857; Lincoln county, 1854; Blakeney, 1855, 1857; Direct importer of the above, and of all other brands in any quantity from one bottle on up.